PUZZLE SHEETS

Murder

Ciphers, riddles, logic puzzles and deduction challenges. Solve each one to unlock hidden truths. Write your answers in the spaces provided. Solutions are in the Game Master Guide.

Your Challenges

PUZZLE

The Whiskey Cipher

CIPHER · DIFFICULTY: MEDIUM

A cryptic message was found scrawled on a napkin near the bar. It reads: 'WKH NLOOHU ZDV LQ WKH RIILFH'. Decode this message to reveal a crucial piece of information.

HINTS

1. Try shifting each letter back by three places in the alphabet.
2. The first word 'WKH' becomes 'THE'.
3. The message is a simple statement about the killer's location.

YOUR ANSWER

PUZZLE

Who Had Access?

LOGIC · DIFFICULTY: MEDIUM

The office door was locked from the outside, and only two people had keys: Charles Whitmore and Vivian Cross. Charles was found dead inside. Assuming the killer locked the door after leaving, who must have been the last person to leave the office? Use the clues to deduce the answer.

HINTS

1. Consider who had the means to lock the door from the outside.
2. Charles was inside, so he couldn't have locked it from the outside.
3. The killer had to have a key to lock the door.

YOUR ANSWER

PUZZLE

The Manager's Secret

RIDDLE · DIFFICULTY: EASY

I am something that can be deposited, but not in a bank. I can be large or small, but I am always unexplained. I was found in Vivian's safe, and I reveal a motive for murder. What am I?

HINTS

1. Think about what Vivian was hiding in her safe.
2. It's related to money and is evidence of a crime.
3. The records showed large sums of money that couldn't be explained.

YOUR ANSWER

PUZZLE

Timeline of Deceit

TIMELINE · DIFFICULTY: HARD

Place the following events in the correct chronological order based on the actual timeline: (A) Vivian returns to the party, (B) Charles argues with James, (C) Vivian strikes Charles with the paperweight, (D) James discovers the body, (E) Vivian stages the scene and takes the wallet and watch. Use the timestamps to order them.

HINTS

1. Use the timestamps provided in the event descriptions.
2. The murder happened at 23:00, and the staging happened 15 minutes later.
3. Vivian returned to the party after staging the scene.

YOUR ANSWER